

14th EBF Open Symposium
Science – Our Universal Language

Feedback from Remote HA inspection Workshop

Tsvetelina Ivanova, on behalf of the EBF

24-26 November 2021, Barcelona

Day 1

16:00	18:00	Session 4: Workshop – Remote inspections by Health Authorities – experiences and challenges (in parallel with session 5)
16:00	16:20	Tsvetelina Ivanova, on behalf of the EBF Regulatory framework for Remote HA inspection: an overview
16:20	16:40	Robert Nelson, on behalf of the EBF Practical considerations and challenges from industry
16:40	17:00	Iain Love, Charles River Laboratories 1.5y into remote HA inspections – learning together
17:00	17:20	Martijn Baeten, Sciensano (Belgian Institute for Health) On: Experience and learnings from remote inspections.
17:20	17:50	Workshop discussion – building on a pre-meeting survey to all delegates Preparing for best practices breakout – the Rosetta Stone for remote inspections by health authorities
17:50	18:00	Wrap up – preparing to continue the discussion at the December Workshop

Feedback from the discussions

- Remote inspections are not considered as a alternative approach to on-site ones by all HA
- Requirements for remote inspections needs to be aligned
- Remote HA inspections could not fully replace on-site ones, but could be considered for low risk facilities
- Paper records are challenging to be reviewed during a remote inspections

Acknowledgements

➤ EBF Community

Contact Information

Questions: info@e-b-f.eu

European Bioanalysis Forum vzw
www.e-b-f.eu